

Solar tubes have been installed in the public works facility, providing natural lighting and reducing energy costs.

